Maintaining Contractor Registration Number: EDR19032

Dear Elevating Devices Registered Contractor,

As discussed and agreed to at the last Elevating Devices Advisory Council meeting, please find attached for your information and attention some data on your performance as a contractor. This data is for periodic inspections on installations for which you were the maintaining contractor over the period from January 1, 2012 to October 17, 2012.

Also included for reference are average numbers for industry as a whole, so you can compare your performance to industry.

Where you have multiple contractor registrations, we have broken down the information by individual registrations.

We hope that this data will provide information that you can use to improve compliance on the elevators that you maintain.
